

JONES NAMED NEW WAR RISK DIRECTOR

Glass Appoints New York Business
Man to Succeed Colonel Lindsey
Who Resigned After Quarrel.

INVESTIGATION IS EXPECTED

Complete Reorganization Is Begun and Probe by Congress Is Not Now Unlikely.

Washington, May 19.—The war risk insurance bureau, through which 1,000,000 soldiers or their dependents receive payments of insurance amounts or compensation, was in process of sudden reorganization today through the appointment of R. A. Chomley-Jones, formerly a New York business man, now a colonel in the bureau's section in France, a director to succeed Col. Henry D. Lindsey who resigned yesterday in a clash with Secretary Glass in which he charged the treasury department with placing restraints on the organization which were making it a colossal failure.

Secretary Glass in a public statement has made a vigorous reply to Colonel Lindsey's charges and the changes are said to forecast a thorough shakeup of the big bureau which bears a closer home relation to the soldiers than any other agency of the government. Clouds of charges have been hovering over the bureau for months and congressional investigation is expected.

ARKANSAS WINS BOUNDARY DISPUTE WITH MISSISSIPPI

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The state of Arkansas by an opinion rendered today in the supreme court won its boundary suit brought against the state of Mississippi for the purpose of determining the line between those two states in the vicinity of Horseshoe Bend.

The suit was instituted in 1914 as an original proceeding and resulted from the action of the Mississippi river in 1848 in changing its course. In disposing of the case, the supreme court sustained in general terms Arkansas' contention that the middle of the main navigable channel of the river is the present boundary line. The court announced a commission will be appointed to determine the boundary line and to report its findings to the court.

In another case in which the boundary line between Arkansas and Mississippi at Horseshoe Bend was involved, the supreme court also in effect affirmed Mississippi court decisions awarding Ed Jackson and a number of other land owners damages for timber alleged to have been taken by the Rust Land & Lumber Co., an Arkansas concern, by dismissing the appeal.

JUST HURT ALL OVER

Couldn't Sit, Stand or Lie
With Any Comfort; Sister-in-Law Gives Good Advice and Cardui Does a World of Good.

Holland Texas.—Mrs. Nanette Moore of this place, states: "About three years ago I was in a very critical condition. I had been suffering for some time. To tell how I hurt would be impossible.

I just hurt all over. I couldn't sit, stand or lay with any comfort, my back, sides and head all gave me a great deal of trouble.

I was especially bothered with a tight swimming in my head. My people were very uneasy about me and sent me to my relatives to see if a change would do me any good.

I stopped at a sister-in-law's and she being a great believer in Cardui, asked me why I didn't use it. I decided to try it.

I had only taken a few doses when I felt it would do me good. This gave hope and I used it right along and it did me just a world of good, right which time I have never ceased to praise Cardui."

Cardui is recommended for simple female complaints and womanly pains and has been found to benefit in thousands of such cases when not due to malformation or that do not require surgical treatment. Try it—Ad.

A new BOOTH TARKINGTON

Here is a story that will make you
young again

Story

TWO inimitably funny boys—and Florence, a little girl as diabolically naughty, as fascinatingly unexpected as the immortal Penrod... If you want to know how a small town can be uprooted—devastated—swept from its moorings—by the simple, outspoken publication of what two small boys overheard and saw—then read Booth Tarkington's big new serial, "The Oriole," in the June Pictorial Review.

The town of North End had been going along peacefully. Neighbors gossiped, young men "paid attention" to young ladies, young ladies "encouraged" young men in the comfortable, regular way. And then, all at once—a bomb!

Those two incorrigible boys, Herbert Illingsworth Atwater, Jr., and his friend Henry Rooter, decided to start a newspaper. Then enter Florence! You will laugh as no story ever made you laugh before. It is Booth Tarkington at his best—recreating, with a master hand, the magic and sparkle of your own adventures when you were fourteen.

WORK that women can't be hired to do!

Do you know how seven American cities are taking the drudgery out of housework?

THE biggest single industry in America—the most important—and yet the most backward—Housework!

Eighteen million women working at it!—but never any attempt to regulate hours, wages, conditions of work!

Aren't you interested in what is being done to change this? Wouldn't you like to know how the drudgery can be taken out of your housework?

The intelligent wife of a college professor decided to keep a chart of the time absolutely necessary for her to devote to her household of five members. It came to 16 hours of labor a day!

No wonder women can't be hired to do this work!

Read how New York City, Washington, St. Louis, Chicago, Philadelphia, Princeton and Montclair, N. J., are solving this problem. Read Katherine Glover's remarkable article in the June Pictorial Review.

SCHOOL TEACHERS' salaries are a disgrace

TEACHER, $65 a month. Colored barber, $30 a week. These two advertisements recently appeared, one below the other, in a New York newspaper. Is it any wonder that our educational system is in its present appalling condition?

In Washington, D. C., a teacher begins at $750 a year—less than $15 a week. After twenty-five years—she may rise as high as $1300!

In Chicago it is worse. The minimum salary is $600, and a teacher must work seventeen years to get $1000!

In twenty-three states the average teacher gets less than $400 a year!

A real estate agent in Washington, D. C., hung out a sign, "No apartments available for teachers." When asked about it, he said that he had no apartments on his list that teachers could afford.

A high school teacher in Illinois tried to persuade one of his boys who had left school to work in a mine, that he ought to finish his education. The boy replied, "No, sir. I am making more money without an education than you are making with one."

Read Ida Clyde Clarke's vivid, arresting article in the June Pictorial Review—an article packed with pitiful, outrageous facts about teachers' salaries. The second in Pictorial Review's great new series on American education.
